NEWS ALERT

April 5, 2001
Electronic Bulletin No. 175

CLOSURE OF SAN ANTONIO TERMINAL

CORRECTION

Eastbound Domestic Service to San Antonio, TX Canceled

Our Stack Facts No. 174 indicated that the San Antonio, TX terminal was closing. This is in error.

Effective May 1, 2001, Pacer Stacktrain will no longer offer domestic service from southern California to San Antonio, TX.

We will continue to offer eastbound services to San Antonio for all Ocean Carrier customers. San Antonio also will continue to serve as a gateway for shipments originating in the Laredo, TX area as well as Mexico to southern California.

We apologize for any inconvenience our original Stack Facts on this subject may have caused.

Should there be any questions regarding this announcement, customers are encouraged to contact their Business Development or Customer Service Representatives.
