Re: Portland Eastbound Service Revision

Dear Valued Customer,

Effective Saturday, November 27, 2004, Pacer Stacktrain will discontinue operating a Saturday night train service from Portland, OR to Chicago and beyond. There has been insufficient volume to warrant operation of the Saturday train for the past 60 days and in the continuing effort to maintain the most efficient network as possible, it was concluded to discontinue the Saturday service.

Volume originating in Seattle, WA on Saturday is not affected by this change.

Thank you,

Operations
